Press Release

On Saturday evening, March 31st, 2012, the American Accordion Musical Society, in conjunction with the Mid Atlantic Music Teachers Guild, will be honoring Internationally known Virtuoso, Daniel Desiderio with a testimonial concert & dinner at the Hanover Marriott Hotel in Whippany, N.J. The concert program will feature the Westmont Philharmonia Accordion Orchestra under the direction of Stanley Darrow, Virtuoso Mary Tokarski, World Champion Beverly Roberts Curnow, 2011 MAMTG Accordion Champion Albert Manginelli, and the Accordion Pops Orchestra under the direction of Al Terzo. Commentator & Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be artist & entertainer Lenny Feldmann.

Daniel J. Desiderio, teacher, conductor, composer, arranger, & recording artist, has performed in concert halls throughout Europe and America including London's Royal Festival Hall, Copenhagen's Radio House, Munich's Congress Hall, New York's Carnegie Hall & Town Hall, Philadelphia's Academy of Music & Kimmel Center, and the White House. A former board member of the American Accordionists Association & founder of the Pennsylvania Accordion Teachers Association, Mr. Desiderio continues to perform in concerts & private affairs in the Philadelphia area.
